DoL to Hold Sessions on Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

Are you ready for all that is involved with implementing The Workforce Innovation and Opportunities Act (WIOA)? Do you know how regulations may impact the way that you deliver services? Are you considering being an early implementer?

Then, it is time to get your seat at the table!

NAWDP Members will have an opportunity to provide their input into regulations and implementation strategies throughout the process. To kick things off, the Department of Labor is holding a series of webinars on key topics to gather input from stakeholders like you.

All Webinars will begin at 2:00 p.m. eastern time and last for 1 hour. Just sign up for the ones that most apply to you - or sign up for all of them.

- Thursday, August 21 - Strengthening the One Stop System
- Friday, August 22 - Job-Driven Training for Adults and Dislocated Workers
- Monday, August 25 - Integrated Performance Reporting and the ETPL
- Tuesday, August 26 - Consultation with Consumers, Advocacy Groups, and Direct Service Providers on Services for Individuals with Disabilities
- Thursday, August 28 - The Migrant and Seasonal Farmworker Program
- Tuesday, September 2 - Services to Individuals with Disabilities
- Friday, September 5 - Services to Disconnected Youth
- Thursday, September 11 - Strategic Program Alignment and Unified Planning
- Friday, September 12 - WIOA and Registered Apprenticeship
- Monday, September 15 - The Indian and Native American Program

Labor staff will share the discussion questions for each Webinar in advance on the Webinar registration page at <http://www.doleta.gov/WIOA>.

This is YOUR opportunity to get a seat at the table and let the decision-makers know what YOU need and what concerns YOU.

Space may be limited so you will want to register quickly. You may do this at <http://www.doleta.gov/WIOA>

Please direct questions on these webinar to DOL.WIOA@dol.gov

Thank you for all of your efforts. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at Bridget@nawdp.org or 202/589-1790.
